Dear Sir,

Subject: Request for Access to Information and Permits Related to the Give-Away of Kitubulu Central Forest Reserve to Tian Tang Group

We, the undersigned environmental organizations operating in Uganda, write to formally request access to all relevant documents, permits, licenses, correspondences, and approvals relating to the allocation, lease, or any form of give-away of land within Kitubulu Central Forest Reserve to Tian Tang Group or any of its subsidiaries, agents, or associates.

This request is made pursuant to the Access to Information Act, 2005, and the National Forestry and Tree Planting Act, 2003, which require transparency and accountability in the management and conservation of forest reserves. As stakeholders in environmental protection and sustainable natural resource management, we seek this information to better understand the legal, procedural, and environmental implications of the reported give-away.

Specifically, we request:

1. Copies of all permits, licenses, or approvals issued to Tian Tang Group (or affiliates) in relation to Kitubulu Central Forest Reserve;
2. Copies of any Memoranda of Understanding, lease agreements, or land titles concerning the said land;
3. Environmental and Social Impact Assessment (ESIA) reports or approvals related to the project;
4. Any correspondence between the NFA, Tian Tang Group, and any other relevant government entities regarding the project; and
5. Minutes, resolutions, or internal communications that document decision-making processes concerning the allocation or change in land use of the forest reserve.

We kindly request that the information be provided in either physical copies or electronic format to facilitate timely review. Should there be any statutory fees associated with accessing these documents, please inform us so that we may make the necessary arrangements.

We appreciate the crucial role that the National Forestry Authority plays in safeguarding Uganda's forest ecosystems and trust that you will treat this request with the urgency and transparency it deserves.

Yours faithfully,

For and on behalf of:
